- b. The question paper shall be of objective type with 4 multiple choices/alternates as answers, out of which only one choice shall be correct. For every correct answer, one mark will be awarded, however for every wrong answer, 0.25 marks shall be deducted. Those candidates who have obtained at least 33% of total marks in the online examination shall be considered as passed. In case of SC/ST candidates, a minimum of 28% shall be considered as passed.
- c. In case of more than one candidate securing same total marks in examination, the candidate older in age will be placed higher in merit. In case the total marks and date of birth is also same, the candidate possessing higher educational qualification would be considered higher in merit. In case of a tie in date of birth as well as the highest educational qualification, the candidates securing higher percentage of marks in the qualifying examination would be considered higher in merit. In case all the above parameters result in a tie, a candidate having passed his qualifying examination earlier would be considered senior in the merit list.

6. Selection Process and Appointments:-

Appointment shall be made on the basis of a candidate's merit in examination and the preferences indicated by him/her subject to the availability of the posts belonging to the category of the candidate in that particular bank. For example, if an SC candidate has expressed his first preference for a particular Banks and no SC category post is available in that particular bank, then the next preference expressed by him will be considered. Candidates should express their preferences for all the banks for the posts of Senior Manager, Manager as well as Banking Assistant. Preferences for the post of Computer Programmer should be given as per the available posts in different Banks. Banks shall be allocated to the candidates on the basis of their merit in the examination result and the preference indicated by them in the application form.

Note:-

- a. Apex Bank and Various Central Co-operative Banks are all independent cooperative bodies and the appointment letters to the finally selected candidates will be issued by the respective Bank, for which the candidate has been selected.
- b. The Board is conducting common examination for recruitment to each of the various categories of posts advertised on behalf of the Apex Bank and various Central Cooperative Banks and after issuing common merit lists for each of the posts on the basis of such examination, recommendations for appointment of candidate in an institution shall be made on the basis of his/her ranking in the merit as well as the preference indicated by him/her.
- c. If a woman candidate secures merit in the general category and there is no seat reserved for woman candidates in the institution of her preference, she will be allotted a post against the mixed vacancies (male+female) of the general category. Where the 30 percent quota reserved for women is fulfilled, a woman candidate securing merit shall be given appointment in excess of the 30 percent quota, meaning thereby that no vacancy of a particular category shall remain unfilled for want of a seat reserved for women, if a woman candidate of that category is available in the merit. Reason having that there is no reservation for male candidates.
- d. Each candidate applying for a particular post will be required to give preference for the institution of his/her choice while filling up the application form. These preferences, once given, shall be final and irreversible. A candidate can give preferences for more than one institution (of the CCBs).
- e. Candidates should keep in mind that, after the examination, the Board shall recommend a candidate for appointment on a post in one institution only and such recommendation will be on the basis of the candidate's merit and availability of posts belonging to his/her category in the banks/institution of his/her preference.

- f. The selection list prepared and recommended by the Board shall be made available to the Bank concerned on the basis of which, the Bank shall take up the process of appointment.
- g. The candidates recommended for appointment shall be given appointment on a fixed remuneration for the initial two years. The remuneration shall be as fixed by the Registrar, Cooperative Societies, Rajasthan from time to time. However, contribution to the EPF shall be deducted as per the rules. No extra allowances and perquisites shall be payable to the selected candidate other than the fixed remuneration.
- h. Every newly appointed personnel shall be on probation for two years. Full pay as per the prevailing pay grades shall be paid only after the satisfactory completion of the probation period. The Bank may extend the probation period of a personnel up to a period of one year, if his/her work is not found satisfactory. Confirmation of the appointed personnel shall be done after successful completion of probation period provided that the personnel shall not be confirmed unless the personnel passes the computer efficiency test.
- i. The selected candidates will be required to pass a computer efficiency test within a period of two years from the date of appointment. The computer efficiency test shall be conducted by an agency approved by the Registrar, Cooperative Society, Rajasthan.
- j. Before joining, as probationers, the selected candidates have to fulfill all the necessary formalities fixed by the Bank and shall execute a two years' service bond of prescribed value with the concerned Bank as per the guidelines of the Cooperative Department.
- k. Before joining the selected candidates shall complete the necessary formalities decided by the Bank which include the candidate's medical test, police verification, personal guarantee and financial fidelity as decided by the Bank.
- 1. The list of Banks along with their codes is at Annexure- 3
- 7. Pay and Emoluments- Post wise pay scales and admissible emoluments/perquisites are available at annexure 2
